SAVOR THE SEA

Menu

☞ If you deconstruct Greece, you will in the end see an olive tree, a grapevine, and a boat remain. That is, with as much, you reconstruct her. ☞

“Odysseas Elytis” Nobel price literature 1979

ARMENI
SAVOR THE SEA

"But when we were come down to the ship and the sea, we first of all drew the ship into the divine sea; and we placed a mast and armena in the black ship.

And taking the sheep we put them on board; and we ourselves also embarked grieving, shedding the warm tear.

And fair-haired Circe, an awful goddess, possessing human speech, sent behind our dark-blue-prowed ship a moist wind that filled the armena, an excellent companion, And we sat down making use of each of the instruments in the ship; and the wind and the pilot directed it. And the armena of it passing over the the sea were stretched out the whole day."

Homer's Odyssey, rhapsody ñ armeno: ancient Greek word for the sails of a ship
